 - c) A notice mailed to all current members
- 2.4. "Member" means a person who is registered as a member of the Club in accordance with this Constitution. Except in the case of Honorary Life Members, registration as a member is completed upon payment of the then current annual membership fee.
- 2.5. The "Auditor" is someone who is appointed at the Annual General Meeting and who is a member of the New Zealand Society of Accountants, and who is not a Member of the Club
- 2.6. "B.O.P Blues" means Bay of Plenty Blues Club Incorporated
- 2.7. The "Club" means Bay of Plenty Blues Club Incorporated
- 2.8. The "Financial Year" of the Club shall be 1 July to 30 June.
- 2.9. This Constitution shall be effective on and from the date of Incorporation of the Club.

3. OBJECTS

- 3.1. The objects for which the Club is established are:-
 - a) To promote and further the playing, performance, enjoyment and study of Blues music by way of concerts, public performances, tuition, encouragement and support to Blues musicians of all ages and those interested in Blues
 - b) To nurture and develop Blues among young and aspiring musicians
 - c) To develop a network of people with a common interest in Blues music
 - d) To provide a venue and such facilities as required to meet the objectives of the Club
 - e) To generally do and carry out all things that are likely to further or promote Blues music, musicians and social activities between Members.
 - f) To welcome and host visiting musicians both from both New Zealand and overseas
 - g) To purchase, take on, lease or otherwise acquire, any land, buildings or other property which may be required for the purposes of, or conveniently used in connection with any of the objects of the Club and to sell, mortgage or otherwise dispose of the same

- h) To do such other lawful things in furtherance of the objectives of the Club

4. MEMBERSHIP

- 4.1. Membership of the Club shall be open to all persons who subscribe to the funds of the Club such fee as shall be determined by the Annual General Meeting of the Club.
- 4.2. The Membership Year shall be the same as the Financial Year, and subscriptions shall fall due on the first day of the Membership Year.
- 4.3. The Committee may decline to accept a person as a Member, provided that a person so declined shall be entitled to appear before the Committee to discuss the reasons for the declination of membership.
- 4.4. Every Member, upon acceptance, shall be issued with a card of membership with the Member's name written thereon, and a unique membership number. This card must be produced when proof of membership is required.
- 4.5. The Secretary of the Club shall maintain a register of Members and shall provide a copy of the current register to the Committee upon request and no less frequently than once every calendar year.
- 4.6. Any Member whose subscription is in arrears by more than 60 days may not vote at any meeting and may, at the discretion of the Committee, be barred from the use of the Club equipment or any facility connected therewith.

5. HONORARY LIFE MEMBERSHIP

- 5.1. Any person, in the absolute discretion of the Committee, may be elected an Honorary Life Member of the Club. An Honorary Life Member shall be eligible for appointment or election as an officer of the Club and shall have the same rights as any Member.

6. PATRON

- 6.1. The Club may at any time in General meeting appoint a person of standing and repute (who need not be a member of the Club) to be the Patron of the Club. The office of Patron shall be a post of honour only, and shall carry no executive responsibilities.

7. CESSATION OF MEMBERSHIP

- 7.1. Any Member shall cease to be a Member if the annual subscription (covering the Financial Year) is unpaid after 90 days following the date the subscription was due.
- 7.2. Any Member may resign by giving written notice to the Secretary of the committee. Refunds on annual subscriptions will not be given to resigning Members.
- 7.3. The Committee may consider revoking a person's membership of the Club for misconduct which materially and adversely affects the rights of other members or the reputation of the Club.
- 7.4. Before revoking any person's membership, the Committee must:

- a) give the person a reasonable opportunity to appear and/or be represented before the Committee to give an explanation.
 - b) allow the person a reasonable time to remedy any default which is capable of remedy.
- 7.5. The Committee may, by a majority of at least 66 per cent of those present, revoke a person's membership of the Club if:
- a) it is not satisfied with the person's explanation or the person fails to offer any explanation; or
 - b) the person has failed to remedy any default within any time allowed by the Committee.
- 7.6. Termination of membership for any reason does not relieve the Member from liability for payments due to the Club before termination.

8. ELECTION OF COMMITTEE

- 8.1. At any time prior to or during the course of the Annual General Meeting of the Club nominations for Officers of the Committee shall be called for and when duly seconded, presented to the Annual General Meeting.
- 8.2. In the event of there being more nominees than offices, election will be determined by vote. In the event of two or more nominees receiving the same number of votes the Chairperson of the Annual General Meeting shall have a casting vote, as well as a deliberative vote.
